

Grand Jury Takes 15 Minutes to Indict Four Hall Kin for Murder

HEARD SHOTS! Corroborating the version of Mrs. Jane Gibson of the murder of Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Anna Hoag told the grand jury yesterday that she heard shots on the night of the murder. Mrs. Hoag, known as "the mystery woman of Orange," lives near the Phillips farm. Photo shows her leaving courthouse after giving testimony. (Photo Graphic.)

JURY HEARS HER. Catherine Rastall, the choir singer, who, with Ralph V. M. Gorsline, was in De Russey's Lane the night Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills were slain, told the grand jury her story yesterday. Photo shows her with Capt. Lamb, arriving at the courthouse. (Photo Graphic.)

LEGAL SPOTLIGHT again turned on Janet Beecher (above) when her second husband, Dr. Richard H. Hoffman, asked Supreme Court today for custody of 5-year-old son she refuses to give up. (Photo Graphic.)

FREE. Final decree in divorce from Francis X. Bushman, actor, has been granted Beverly Bayne (above) in Reno, Nev. The two have been separated for some time.
